I had to quit my job because the symptoms are so severe. I want to do something so I can meet the baby. Hi, My baby is 9 months old. I am suffering from post partum depression and anxious. I want to do something so I can meet my baby after 9 months. I am not able to take my baby out because I also have a son who I walk while holding his hand. It is so much easier to do this and we can't take time off work as it is not possible. Are there any programs in place where you can get help? There is so much conflicting information out there. I know people can't be held responsible for what they say but if anyone can find an answer it would be great. My baby is 3.5 months old and the first time around I was really struggling and did not know what to do. Now it is time again and im trying to get over my PPD and all the other things that are going on. The advice I get from people is to do whatever makes you happy. I usually spend a lot of time with my son and I love playing games with him and looking after him and cuddling him, and then I have a stressful day, get back to it and I always feel better. Good luck I did not know anything when I was having my daughter and I was also depressed. Now that she is 3 I have come so much farther because I have been in education for 18 years. I am at a point where my anxiety has gotten really bad. I usually cry when I see a baby or hear a baby cry. I am really craving to go out of my house. If I can get a babysitter I will go out to my friend's house and watch movies. If I can't get a sitter I just sit in my room and cry. Hi, I have 2 kids, 6 and 3 years 0cc13bf012
